This evening marks West Valley City's kickoff celebration for Neighborhood Nights: National Night Out 2010. The City has participated in National Night Out for 27 years. This year's kickoff event will be from 5:30 - 8:00 p.m. and includes free food, entertainment, emergency preparedness displays, a visit from McGruff, a UHP Helicopter, emergency vehicle display, and much more. National Night Out is a way to help build community relationships between neighbors and the City. More than 30 crime prevention awareness events will take place in the City throughout the month of August.

For more information about this event and other events planned throughout the month of August as part of West Valley City's Neighborhood Nights: National Night Out 2010 call 801-963-3285 or visit www.wvc-ut.gov/nno.
